

RESOLUTION

OF

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA,

RELATIVE TO

The establishment of a national armory and foundery in that State.

JANUARY 15, 1846.

Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

IN SENATE.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly met, That the Senators and Representatives from this State be, and they are hereby, respectfully requested to urge the Congress of the United States to cause such examination and inquiries to be made as may enable them to determine upon the propriety of establishing a national armory and foundery at the most suitable point in this State for that purpose.

Agreed to, December 6th, 1845.

ABSALOM H. CHAPPELL,
President of the Senate.

Test:

THOS. R. R. COBB,
Secretary of the Senate.

In House of Representatives, concurred in December 23d, 1845.

CHARLES J. JENKINS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Test:

JOHN J. WORD,
Clerk House of Representatives.

Assented to, December 29th, 1845.

GEO. W. CRAWFORD, Governor.

RESOLUTION

62

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA

RELATIVE TO

The establishment of a national armory and foundry in that State

JANUARY 15, 1845.

Reported to the Committee on Military Affairs and ordered to be printed.

IN SENATE

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly met, That the Senators and Representatives from this State be, and they are hereby, respectfully requested to urge the Congress of the United States to cause such examination and inquiries to be made as may enable them to determine upon the propriety of establishing a national armory and foundry at the most suitable point in this State for that purpose.

Agreed to, December 6th, 1845.

ABRAHAM H. CHAPPELL,
President of the Senate.

Test:
THOMAS R. CORN,
Secretary of the Senate.

In House of Representatives, concurred in December 23d, 1845.
CHARLES J. JENKINS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Test:
JOHN J. WOOD,
Clerk House of Representatives.

Agreed to, December 29th, 1845.
GEO. W. CRAWFORD, Governor.